VICTORY FOR OC VETERANS

Viewing party held for Veterans by Supervisor Wagner at OC Hall of Administration

COUNTY OF ORANGE – AB-1595 passed out of the State Assembly hearing on April 26, a big step towards building the Veterans Cemetery at the Gypsum Canyon site in Anaheim Hills. This is a significant step towards the resolution of a decade-long battle over where to build the cemetery. Supervisor Wagner led a bipartisan coalition of Veterans, all 34 OC cities, and the County to reach a consensus on the Anaheim Hills site.

A special thank you to VALOR, and to Assemblywoman Sharon Quirk-Silva for her steadfast commitment to our Veterans and for moving the issue forward.

WELCOMING A NEW EXHIBIT AT OC ZOO

ORANGE – OC Zoo's new Large Mammal Exhibit in Irvine Regional Park opens to the public on May 13. Four new animals will make their debut: an adult mountain lion, three orphaned mountain lion cubs, and an adult jaguar. Supervisor Wagner attended a behind-the-scenes preview of the Zoo's new two-acre Exhibit, which features climbing platforms, a waterfall, and a bridge for the cats to cross overhead. The space is flexible and can be configured into four separate or connected areas.

A few months ago, Supervisor Wagner met two of the baby cubs, a pair of sisters that were apparently abandoned or orphaned near a Thousand Oaks, CA office park in November of 2021. Due to their young ages, it is not likely the cubs would survive in the wild and will remain at the OC Zoo.

OC Zoo will take name suggestions from the public for the two female mountain lion cubs. Animal keepers will narrow the top suggestions and the public will get to vote on the names. To participate in the naming contest, visit OC Zoo for the Exhibit's opening weekend on May 13 and May 14. Stay tuned for more details or visit here to stay updated.

OUT AND ABOUT

IRVINE – With bipartisan support, Be Well OC is slated to build a second campus in the Third District. Supervisor Wagner was pleased to announce two community project requests with Chairman Doug Chaffee and OC Sheriff Don Barnes at an April 19 press conference.

U.S. Representative Young Kim (39th) secured $2 million and U.S. Representative Lou Correa (46th) secured $5 million for the Coordinated Reentry Program for the proposed Be Well South Site in the Third District. Both representatives made a visit to the project site to present checks to the County of Orange. A special thank you goes to both of them.

OC Be Well is a public-private model that seeks to break the stigma surrounding mental health treatment. As the first of its kind in the nation, the campus provides mental health care for all walks of life, under one roof, regardless of one's ability to pay.

YOBRA LINDA – Supervisor Wagner was honored to participate in the Veterans Resource Fair on April 22 with U.S. Representative Young Kim. He recognized 50 Vietnam Veterans each with a special lapel pin and individually thanked them for their bravery and service. We are forever indebted to our Veterans and their families for their great sacrifice.
