At the Board of Supervisors, Chairman Wagner and his colleagues recognized important happenings in the Month of March. He also introduced a new ad hoc committee: Orange County Hall of Fame. The Board passed it unanimously. Read about some updates below.

At the Board of Supervisors meeting, Chairman Wagner proposed an item that passed unanimously to establish an Orange County Hall of Fame ad hoc committee. With the support of Vice Chairman Do, the ad hoc will drill down the details on location, categories, inductions, and honorees.

Chairman Wagner serves because he loves this County. Orange County is home to the most famous theme park in the world, Disneyland. Many residents and business have been honored at the highest level of rock and roll, baseball, arts and entertainment, and beyond. Big names like Kevin Costner, Will Ferrell, Freddie Freeman, Gerrit Cole, Tiger Woods, Wahoo's Fish Taco, No Doubt and Gwen Stefani (her fan club showed support on his social media), Vans Shoes, and the list will go on. Stay tuned for updates on this exciting new amenity that will thank and recognize those who put our great County on the map.

MARCH RECOGNITIONS

SPOT MICKEY THE JAGUAR AT OC ZOO

A young jaguar is the newest addition to the OC Zoo's Large Mammal Exhibit, joining four large cats in the new section of the zoo.

Mickey, an 11-month-old jaguar, comes to the OC Zoo from the Wildlife World Zoo in Arizona just months after his brother, Ziggy, debuted in the zoo's new, 2-acre habitat.

"We are thrilled to welcome Mickey, the newest jaguar, to the OC Zoo," said Chairman Donald P. Wagner, Orange County Board of Supervisors. "The OC Zoo continues to offer a unique, enjoyable and affordable experience for families. Since the opening of the Large Mammal Exhibit last year, the OC Zoo has drawn a record number of visitors, where people of all ages can see animals up close and learn about local wildlife."

Since its opening in May, the Large Mammal Exhibit marks the largest expansion project in the zoo's history, providing a home for five large cats in a comfortable, natural-looking environment. The area also features artificial rock walls, climbing platforms, a waterfall and several viewing areas for the public to see the large cats up-close.

In May 2022, the zoo welcomed two young, orphaned mountain lion sisters to the exhibit, along with a young, injured male mountain lion and an adult jaguar.

Considered endangered by U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, jaguars' range includes the southwest of Arizona and New Mexico, south to Argentina and northeastern Brazil. Mickey, along with the other large cats, will be available for the public to visit Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Admission into the OC Zoo is $2 per person ages 3 years and over; ages 2 years and under are free.

ENHANCING FIRE SAFETY

A properly installed car seat can reduce a child's risk of death or injury by up to 70 percent. That's why as a Director at the Orange County Fire Authority, Chairman Wagner spearheaded a program that offers free car seat inspections and installations. Schedule an appointment here <https://ocfa.org/carseatinstallation>.

BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

Team Wagner celebrates new business openings, business expansions, and grand reopenings in the Third District. We also recognize community leaders who build up others and welcome people to Orange County's vibrant business community. You may see us at ribbon cuttings around town or Chamber of Commerce Ceremonies because we root for the health, wealth, name and fame of our community doing good work. We see you!
